10, 11 & 15 (opposite page): Our elegant bride and groom only have eyes for each other. Gorgeous floral details by J'Adore Floral Designs are the perfect complement to vintage details courtesy of Opihi Love Boutique Rentals & Event Design. As the sun sets, our bride transitions from fancy to fun by shortening her San Patrick gown.

12, 14, 16, 18 & 19: A gilded tablescape is completed by gold-embellished dinnerware and silver accents all courtesy of Opihi Love Boutique Rentals & Event Design. Sophisticated stationery is also from Opihi Love Boutique Rentals & Event Design. Creamy, subtle floral arrangements are by J'Adore Floral Designs. Toast to marriage and a gorgeous event with Chandon Champagne.

13: Vintage accessories like these cameras and radio, set an elegant and refined scene. All rentals are courtesy of Opihi Love Boutique Rentals & Event Design.

17 & 21: A ceremony set-up is crafted with gorgeous cream draping and a classically elegant chandelier. Our bride is show-stopping from front to back in a gown by San Patrick and vintage accessories from Hula Gypsy.

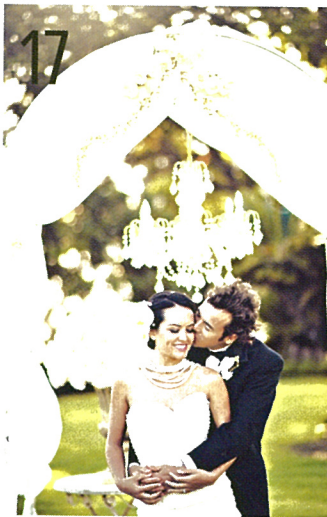

20: A black-tiered cake by Maui Sweet Cakes makes a dramatic statement and is befitting of the event with cream, vintage motifs. Florals by J'Adore Floral Designs help to soften the look.

22 (next page, p. 46): These newlyweds embrace as the sun sets on a classic, elegant event. Her vintage hair accessories are from Hula Gypsy and complement her gown by San Patrick. She's given a natural glow and a sophisticated look with hair & makeup by Ry-n Shimabuku. What's a bride without her groom? Thankfully, he's dapper and W-Day appropriate in a tuxedo from Queen's Bridal Shop. Photography by Tamiz Photography.
