Plein Air Pastels: The Native Plants of Pu'u Mahoe

Michael Clements

Saturday, 1 day / September 10 / 8:00 am - 2:00 pm

Experience the beauty of the D.T. Fleming Arboretum at Pu'u Mahoe while creating a stunning pastel painting! Under the guidance of Michael Clements, students will choose one of several specially-selected native plants as their subject. The goal of this class will be to complete an 8x10 painting that will be ready to frame. Students will take a break mid-day to enjoy a picnic lunch on the grounds of Pu'u Mahoe. On the southern slope of Ulupalakua, the D.T. Fleming Arboretum is the oldest and largest native plant arboretum in Hawai'i and boasts a truly unforgettable view of Maui! Special mahalo to Martha Vockrodt-Moran for making this incredible opportunity possible. Prerequisite: Basic understanding of drawing/painting principles.

Tuition: $75 ($94 nonmember) includes a picnic lunch / Supply list
